I. King William County Budget

Mr. Edwards presented Town Council with three options for West Points tax rates if King William County proceeds with their adopted budget and increased tax rates.

Mr. Hudson advised that the increase tax rate would go into effect with the July 2013 billing, monies would be due to King William in June and December for Fiscal Year 2013.

Mr. Edwards stated that Town Council can adopt their budget this evening and have a called meeting later to change any tax rates.

Andrea Erard advised that an injunction was filled with King William Circuit Court at noon today and that hearings for FOIA and the injunction will be set once the Clerk of Court knows the availability of the King William County Attorney.
